5 Stepan Pisakhov was the famous fairytale writer of the North. He was born in Arkhangelsk in 1879. When he was young, he travelled around the world, but came back to his birth town because he could not live without the north and winters without snow. He was also a painter, an ethnographer and a folklorist. Most of Pisakhov's fairy tales are written on behalf of Senya Malina who symbolizes courage, wit and cunning of the Pomor people.

6 Peter Beketov was a prominent Cossack explorer of Siberia and founder of many cities such as Yakutsk, Chita and Nerchinsk. Beketov started his military service in 1624 and was sent to Siberia in 1627. He was appointed the governor of Yenisei and sent on his first mission to collect taxes from the Buryats in Zabaykalye. He completed the mission successfully and was the first Russian to enter Buryatia and found the first Russian settlement there.

7 Liudmila Tumanova was born in Kurgan just after the Great Patriotic War. She was a poetess, a songwriter and a singer. She wrote about nature, her native town and friends. She published a few records that were very popular in the Soviet Union. In 1972, she joined the Union of Journalists and in 2002, she became a member of the Writers Union. Liudmila Tumanova died in 2018 in Kurgan after an extended illness.

8 Irek Zaripov, born in Sterlitamak in 1983, is a Russian skier, biathlete and a four-time Paralympic champion. Irek was only 17 when he got into a car accident and lost both legs. With the help of the family and doctors, he did not give up and decided to try himself in sport. As a result, he won four gold medals at the 2010 Paralympics in Vancouver and made Russia and Bashkortostan famous all over the world.

9 The famous writer Pavel Bazhov was born in 1879. He worked as a Russian teacher in Yekaterinburg. During summer holidays he travelled around the region collecting myths and legends and writing fairy tales and stories based on them. His most popular works are The Malachite Casket, The Mistress of the Copper Mountain, Tales from the Urals and The Silver Hoof. There is a monument to Bazhov in the centre of Yekaterinburg.
